

GENERAL ROSECRANS.
Nature of the Charge Which May Prevent His Confirmation.

Washington, May 1. — The charge against General Rosecrans is that he was engaged in some fraudulent land speculation in Los Angeles county about twenty years ago. This charge against him was brought to light by Senator Edmunds, who was the attorney for the persons who were trying to dislodge Rosecrans from his lands. The facts of the case are as follows: In 1866 General Rosecrans had George Hansen, a Deputy United States Surveyor, survey the Mexican grant Rancho San Salvedondo, in Los Angeles county. The owners of the grant were not represented at the survey and protested against it. The survey of Hansen made the grant smaller than the owners claimed it was, and General Rosecrans had a number of dummies take up the land that had been thrown into the public domain by contradicting the boundaries of the grant through the survey.

The findings of the Superior Court of Los Angeles in the case of Foster vs. O'Connor, Judge Sepulveda being on the bench, were that the dummies that had taken up the land had assigned all their claims; that the Rosecrans-Hansen survey was set aside by the Secretary of the Interior in 1868, and a new survey ordered; that the second survey runs lines that included all the land claimed by Rosecrans within the Mexican grant. This second survey was set aside in 1871, and Hansen's survey re-established. Some persons who had squatted on the land bought by the dummies were ordered to remove, and they set up the claim that Rosecrans' title to it was obtained fraudulently.

The case was carried to the United States Supreme Court, and Senator Edmunds was engaged by the settlers. He made a stirring argument on the fraudulent character of the title held by Rosecrans, but the Court held that the settlers were not the proper parties to bring the action against Rosecrans to vacate his title, and that the United States Government should do that. The Court, without passing on the fact of whether the land had been fraudulently obtained, dismissed the suit of the settlers. Edmunds remembered the facts of the case, and brought them to the attention of Morrell, Chairman of the Committee on Finance, and it is this which has hung up Rosecrans' nomination and which will probably defeat him.

Jeff. Davis.

ATLANTA, April 30. — Two special cars that left for Montgomery yesterday to bring Jefferson Davis to Atlanta, arrived this afternoon. An immense crowd greeted him at the depot. The party were driven out to the residence of Mrs. B. H. Hill, whose guest Mr. Davis will be. The children of the city, numbering not less than 8,000, were in line all the way from the depot to Mrs. Hill's residence, a distance of over a mile, and scattered flowers before the ex-President's carriage. Two thousand ex-Confederate veterans followed the carriage. No other man ever received such a reception from the Georgia people.

TRADE DOLLARS

The House Committee on Coinage has reported a bill to redeem the trade dollar. A Washington dispatch says the measure reported is a substitute for the several bills on this subject introduced during the present session, and in general terms is similar to that passed by the House two years ago, and which the Senate Finance Committee declined to act upon. It provides that the trade dollar for a period of six months following the passage of the bill shall be accepted by the Government in payment of all public dues, and during the same period directs the Treasurers and Sub-Treasurer of the United States to exchange trade dollars for standard dollars on a parity. A letter and statistical table from the Director of the Mint accompany the report, which show that 16,000,000 trade dollars were coined, of which about 29,000,000 were exported, exclusive of those which are known to have been returned through the custom house. This would leave less than $6,000,000 for redemption. The Director of the Mint believes that not more than 5,000,000 remain in the country and of these nearly 500,000 are at the mints as bullion for recoinage. Six months limitation was placed in the bill in order to prevent trade dollars from being imported from China to secure the advantage of the Act.

It is reasonably certain that the House will pass the bill, but is doubtful if it will have any better success in the Senate this time than it had two years ago. The fate of the bill will depend on the action of the Senate Committee. In the last Congress Morrill, Sherman, Jones of Nevada, Miller of New York, Aldrich, McPherson and Bayard opposed any action on the bill and these seven members constituted the majority. Vance succeeded Bayard in the committee, and Vance, it is believed, would favor the bill, but even with Vance for it, the committee would stand six for and five against. Except Senator Jones the gentlemen above named base their opposition upon the ground that the trade dollar is not a coin of the United States, that the United States is under no obligation to redeem it at its face value, and that as it was deprived of its legal tender quality before it entered into circulation in this country, the holders have no legal or equitable claim against the Government. Mr. Jones and other representatives from silver producing States oppose the bill because they believe it to be unfair for the Government to purchase from one class of citizens, discards from another for 100 cents for 420 grains, when silver bullion can be purchased from the miners for 92 or 93 cents per ounce of 480 grains. It is believed, however, that the bill is stronger in the Senate than two years ago, and that it can be got out of the committee it would have a good chance to pass the Senate. In the House an effort will be made to deduct the value of the trade dollars redeemed from the monthly coinage now prescribed by law, but this is not likely to succeed. The Coinage Committee has come to no decision as to when they will call up the bill for action.

The San Francisco special of April 30th says Senator Sherman said to day that he was cutting out of news papers the speeches of Jeff Davis and the descriptions of the demonstrations in the South over him and putting them where they would be handy for use in the next campaign. As for Davis, said Sherman, he is a monumental fool, a vain and disappointed old man, posing as a martyr, grieving over his failure and appealing for sympathy. What he says is of no particular consequence, but the significant part of it all lies in the manner in which his words are received by the people. Democratic Congressmen are swearing at Davis and his managers. There have been a number of telegrams of remonstrance sent to General Gordon, and he has been begged to suppress Davis, or at least steer him off upon some other topics than those he has been discussing.

Jeff Davis ought to have been hanged twice, and twenty years ago.

Greece must yield. Shame on the whale for swallowing a minnow.

How many more come beside the three already announced are we to have this year?

Gladstone is having a great struggle with his Irish bills. The old man is working hard.

It is rumored that the United States Government has requested the Canadian Government to respite Sprout, who was convicted of murder, until the value of the new evidence is ascertained.

The crisis in Arthur's disease is believed to have been safely passed, and the only danger now is that there will be an acute attack of Bright's disease brought on by some unforeseen cause.

The wealthiest heiress in Chicago is Miss Louisa De Koven, who, by the death of her mother, will inherit the vast Haddock estate that will swell her present fortune to something like $20,000,000. The household, which includes but two—father and daughter, will be closed for the mourning period, after which Miss De Koven will be married to a young New Yorker.

The Chicago Inter Ocean lately published a supplement containing a beautiful colored illustration of life in the vineyard region of California amid the grapes, the oranges and the blue skies of Los Angeles. The Inter-Ocean deserves much credit for the very beautiful design it has got up to inform Eastern people of the charms of the occidental land.

Sergeant-at-Arms Canady says that the story that Senator Miller's funeral cost the government $20,000 is untrue. Said he: "The actual cost will not exceed $8,000. The funeral happened at a time when there was a cut in rail road rates between the rival companies, which made the cost of transportation in the special car very much below what it would otherwise have been."

At the unveiling of the Hill statue at Atlanta, Pension Commissioner Black was the orator, and thus eulogized that damnable traitor Jeff Davis: "Illustrious son of the South, thy silent presence is a loftier tribute than a spoken oration or marble statue on the assembled thousands. Beside the grave of him who never swerved in his devotion to thee and the cause of which thou wert and art a worthy representative, we this day acknowledge thy just claim upon the confidence, esteem, love, and veneration of ourselves and posterity."

Justice Stanley Matthews of the United States Supreme Court has been a pretty constant visitor to New York City at intervals of two or three weeks for some time. It is now announced among his intimate friends that he is soon to wed Miss Mary A. Thacker, widow of Judge J. C. Thacker, who was Commissioner of Patents under Lincoln. She is described as a woman of superior attainments, with great tact and a full knowledge of life and society in Washington, where she spent many years. She is wealthy. The Justice is also rich. It is understood that the wedding will take place in June. Judge Thacker was a Western man, but after retirement from office lived much of the time in New York. Mrs. Thacker was said at one time to be engaged to Garland.

The Chinese bill is reported by the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs as a complete surprise to the Chinese Congressmen. It was not known that the committee had the matter under consideration. The Senate bill is regarded as a great improvement over the bill that the House Committee has decided to report. It differs from it in that it retains Section 8 which is the tonnage clause. Mr. Mowbray thinks that this is one of the most important provisions of his measure. It is thought that the Republican Senate Committee is more inclined to treat this matter broadly than the Democratic House Committee. The Senate bill is undoubtedly the better one and it is understood that the entire delegation will go for that.

COLONEL STEVENSON.

New York, May 2.—The Tribune gives a sketch of the career of Colonel J. D. Stevenson, of San Francisco, now here, after forty years' absence in California, and says that lately his affairs have turned out badly and his visit East has for its object the passage of a bill through Congress returning him on the pay and emoluments of a Colonel in the regular army. The Society of Forty-Niners in this city has taken up his case and a delegation will probably accompany the Colonel to Albany to urge the Legislature to petition Congress for a relief bill. Thence Colonel Stevenson will go to Washington and a dinner will be given to him on his return here by the survivors of the New York Volunteers and the California Pioneers Society on the 7th of May at Marinelli's. A great many old friends called on the old gentleman yesterday at the Astor House, and in the morning his two daughters with some of their children and grandchildren came in. "I begin to feel old," he said to a Tribune reporter, "when I see my great grandchildren all around me. I haven't been about New York at all this time, but it must be greatly changed. My memory goes back easily eighty-two years. 'I don't take any part in politics, my son,' he said to a reporter who had asked about politics in California, "I want to get my bill through and then I can go home and be satisfied to settle down and die."

The speech of Governor Foraker at the Ohio State Encampment at Cleveland of the members of the Grand Army of the Republic has caused a great deal of comment around the capital. In speaking of the reception tendered Davis at Montgomery, Ala., and the unusual statements made on that occasion, the Governor said: "If the spirit of liberty is not dead in the South, neither is it dead in the North. Whatever his actions may represent, this man Jeff Davis who talks about liberty, represents only human slavery, the degradation of labor, the treason of secession and rebellion, the horrors and infamies of Libby and Andersonville—all, in short, that is most malicious, vicious and damnable in American history. To talk of him as an illustrious statesman, who is to be honored with Washington in history, is to insult every sentiment of loyalty and decency in this great country which he wickedly did so much to destroy."

A large mass meeting was held at Los Angeles last Saturday night in the interest of the anti-Chinese boycott movement. Some 1,000 people were present. Rev. N. F. Ravin of San Jose, S. M. White, Major Horace Bell and J. C. Daly, of Los Angeles, addressed the assembly. The tenor of all the speeches was positive in favor of the right to boycott the Chinese and the absolute necessity of ridding the State of this incubus to white labor. At the same time, all the speakers deprecated any approach to violence, insisting also that a boycott requires time. The friends of the anti-Chinese movement urged that clearly to recognize the fact that it would take time to replace the Chinese with white labor, that the boycott could not rightly demand the discharge of Chinese at the hands of any man unless the boycotters can have honest, industrious white men, women, boys or girls to take the places of Mongolians. Perfect order prevailed through the entire meeting.

Senator Jones, who was one of the four Pacific Coast Senators who originally telegraphed to the President not to appoint Mr. Timm Surveyor of the Port of San Francisco, now says he will vote for Mr. Timm's confirmation as he has not been able to find anything against the character of the man which would warrant a Senator in voting against him for the position to which he has been appointed.

It is said that all the ocean steamers plying between ports of the United States and Europe have full passenger lists engaged up to and including the month of June. Probably the cheapest and in some respects, the most comfortable ocean passage is that offered by the Dutch steamers plying between New York and Rotterdam. Fare for a first class passage on these steamers is only $45.

The Senate Restriction Bill.

The bill reported in the Senate upon Chinese restriction meets with general favor from the California delegation in the House. For three months the House Foreign Affairs Committee had under consideration the Morrow bill, and reached a final agreement to report it favorably, but so emasculated as to deprive it of most of its original value. On the other hand the Senate has quietly considered the case and reported a bill which contains the vital features of the Morrow bill in improved phraseology. The Senate bill omits the two year's clause, but this is considered by those most earnest in the matter to be of little practical value, as if a Chinaman is going to return to this country at all he will do so within two years. It reduces the duration of the act from twenty to ten years, but that takes it to 1896, and before that time it is believed that public sentiment will have changed to such an extent that the treaty will be abrogated. It retains the passenger clause restricting the number to be carried by a vessel to one for every fifty tons of registered tonnage, and throughout shows the result of careful and intelligent consideration.

This, said a prominent Republican to a correspondent, is the beginning of the end, and will afford practical relief to California. It is understood that the bill has been read in the presence of Senators Sherman, Edmunds, Forster and Morgan, all of whom concur in its provisions and will support it on the floor of the Senate. It will undoubtedly pass the Senate, and when it gets to the House will be taken up there as a substitute for the emasculated bill submitted by the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Reduction of the Public Debt.

The following is a recapitulation of the debt statement issued May 1st. Total debt, principal and interest, $1,786,365,552, total debt, less available cash items, $1,484,057,847, net cash in Treasury, $77,030,999, debt, less cash in Treasury on May 1, 1886, $1,407,026,848, debt less cash in Treasury April 1, 1886, $1,417,992,235, decrease of debt during the month, $10,965,387, cash in Treasury available for reduction of the public debt, $262,307,706, total cash in Treasury as shown by Treasury's general account, $492,462,510.

TRUCKER'S STEAM LAUNDRY.—The Truckee Republican says:

Arrangements have been made by the laundry association, whereby, if not sold is unattained in the last issue, it will still continue in the even tenor of its way and make money as it is done from the cost. The laundry in Truckee has, so far as the work received is concerned, been a success and perhaps the new arrangements of help will place the establishment in a more profitable position. It is the best equipped laundry in the State, and will continue to do in the future as in the past, first class work at a reasonable price. All customers will be waited on regularly and work delivered as promptly as ever. The effort to sell still remaining goods is those having control art, by press of other business not able to give the attention it requires.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering with crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the stools, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-1874-1yr.

THE LITTLE GIANT FENCE MACHINE FOR MAKING THE UNIVERSAL COMBINATION FENCE.—DAVID YOUNG, PATENTEE.

—Young and Jennings have just received one of those machines for which they have purchased the sole right to manufacture and sell this now universally known and guaranteed to be the best, most durable and portable fence ever manufactured, and peculiarly and especially adapted to fill a long felt want. This fence is needed and in time will be used by everyone that requires a fence, either around the house, garden or ranch. It is cheap, durable and serviceable, to keep in check horses, cattle, sheep, dogs, chickens, etc., and restrain dogs and coyotes, having all the advantages of a picket fence in restraining animals from jumping, and not so liable to decay, and at much less cost, and no bars to injure valuable stock, thus placing it far in advance of any other fence now in use—hence it is inevitably the fence of the future. Wherever this fence has been introduced it has superseded all others. It stands without a rival, and why? Because it is portable. A half mile of this fence may be taken down and removed in a few hours. The material may be hauled and a large number of stacks fenced in a single day. Fields may be fenced for temporary pastorage to turn all kinds of stock, on short notice and but little labor. It is strong—it has been proven by actual test that it is six times stronger than barbed wire. It is durable—it will last three times as long as any other fence. It is hog proof, horse proof, coyote proof, rabbit proof. No fence hitherto tried, except this, will keep sheep in and dogs and coyotes out. It is cheap—in Ohio, Illinois, Missouri and other States where it has been introduced and extensively used it is declared to be from 33 to 40 per cent cheaper than any other fence, and taking into consideration its durability, at least 50 per cent cheaper. We can refer you to thousands who have used it—this is their testimony. We will be pleased to furnish, upon application, any information desired and we think that we can demonstrate that our fence is all that we claim for it. It is the fence.
